Course: Crisis and Change Communication

ECTS: 15

Graded: 7-point Scale (A-F)

Outline

The course focuses on different disciplines and challenges within Corporate Communication. Students will be introduced to selected communication theories, methods and models companies use to handle the challenges in a changing, critical and global world. In order to prevent, build and rebuild stakeholder confidence and trust to organizations and industries the students will gain insight, skills and competences in cross cultural communication, issues management, corporate social responsibility, crisis as well as change communication. Also the students will develop understanding of different industries, skills in teamwork, give and take feedback and skills in critical reflection on products and processes.

Aims

The primary aims are to

- Establish an understanding of selected disciplines of corporate communication such as issues management, change communication, crisis communication and corporate social responsibility
- Provide students with a basic knowledge of methods and theories of cultural analysis and an understanding of the challenges of cross cultural communication

Learning outcome

Students are expected to have achieved knowledge and understanding of:

- Theories of change, crisis and issues management
- Theories and methods of cultural analysis
- Challenges of cross cultural communication

Skills

Students completing the course are expected to:

- Know how to conduct cultural analysis and identify the challenges of cross cultural communication
- Develop analytical, reflective, strategic and critical skills in relation to issues management.
- Identify and deploy different CSR strategies
- Understanding the complexity of handling crisis communication
- Plan and understand organizational change
- Navigate and operate within a various number of disciplines of corporate communication

Graded

To pass students are expected to be active and fulfil DMJX's requirements of attendance and participation both in class, at group work and at completion of projects and assignments. The students are tested through a number of assignments solved in groups of 3-5 students. All students will be graded individually by the Danish grading system, which is transferred to the national grading system of the individual student (A-F). The grade is an overall assessment based on all the student's assignments by internal examination.
